

Arpit Gupta

Arpit is currently working as Deputy Director (Economics), in the Combination Division of Competition Commission of India (Commission), New Delhi. He has over 10 years of professional work experience including 6 years+ experience with Central Government regulatory bodies and Ministries. At the Commission, he has handled cases relating to various sectors / industry such as Healthcare, FMCG, IT & ITeS, Broadcasting, Real Estate etc.

Prior to this, Arpit worked as a Research Assistant in the Infrastructure – Connectivity Division at NITI Aayog, Government of India. At NITI Aayog, he was delegated the task of analyzing all project proposals pertaining to Railways and Civil Aviation and prepare policy briefs on these sectors. As a consultant with Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB), an autonomous government regulator for pipelines in India, Arpit was entrusted with the responsibility of determining transportation tariff for pipelines in India and provide various financial and legal inputs. Arpit has also worked in a private manufacturing and trading company. Arpit started his post masters career at Deloitte as a Business Associate in the healthcare industry.

Arpit has pursued Master in Business Economics from South Campus, University of Delhi and BA (Hons.) Economics from Shri Ram College of Commerce, University of Delhi. He is also a qualified lawyer from Law Centre -I, University of Delhi and Company Secretary from ICSI. He has also completed a certificate course in Completion Law & Policy from London School of Economics and Political Science.